

Heartbeat & Hope: St. Jude's Organ Donor Gala and the Future of Giving

Pueblo, Colorado— February 15, 2025 — Seventh Annual “Organ Donor Signup Gala,” in to raise money for the cause and to sign up 1,000 individuals as new organ donors.

It's that time of year again for the St. Jude Organ Donor Gala. CEO Eric Thomas announced that this year's event will be one of the most important galas yet. That is because if St. Jude can get 1,000 people to sign up as organ donors, they will have successfully signed up 10,000 people in the last seven years! That would mean the 10-years plan is ahead of schedule.

Event Details

St. Jude's announced today that they will be hosting their 7th annual organ donor gala on March 1, 2025, at 6 PM MST. This event will be held at the Complex for the Arts in downtown Pueblo at 123 Main Street. This is a black-tie event to raise money for the cause and to get 1,000 individuals to sign up as organ donors.

Guest Speaker

St. Jude's has stated that Rebecca Newman will be a guest speaker at the event. She received a donor organ from an unknown donor after needing the transplant to save her life. She plans to share her story and talk about the benefits of organ donation from a firsthand perspective. “Organ donations is one of the most important treasures that you can give another human being. Knowing that because of you, they can live a better and longer life, helps leave a footprint in the world.” Rebecca Newman stated.

Activities

During this black-tie event there will be a 3-course dinner at which time all the donors can mingle and get to know one another. Afterwards the event planner will host a silent auction where donors can purchase various items. There will also be a raffle. Tickets will be sold at the event. All proceeds will go towards the goal for St. Jude's Organ Donor Health Fund.
