

The Happy Atrium

December 31, 2025

To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great pleasure that I recommend Emily Herr. During her time with The Happy Atrium, Emily consistently demonstrated exceptional professionalism, a strong work ethic, and outstanding time management skills.

Emily was responsible for all public relations initiatives for The Happy Atrium. In this role, she exhibited advanced skills in PR, crafting and executing strategies that significantly enhanced our company's visibility and reputation. Her work was consistently of the highest quality, reflecting meticulous attention to detail and a proactive approach.

Emily's dedication to her responsibilities was evident in her commitment to meeting deadlines and exceeding expectations. She managed her time effectively, prioritizing tasks and ensuring that all projects were completed efficiently. Her ability to handle the full scope of our PR needs independently was truly impressive.

I am confident that Emily's skills and experience in public relations, combined with her dedication and professional demeanor, make her an excellent candidate for any organization seeking a talented PR professional.

I wholeheartedly recommend Emily Herr and believe she will be a valuable asset to any team. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Sincerely,
